E-mail: pastoralcare@cvuuf.org or Neighborhood@cvuuf.org to reach your neighborhood leaders.

Helping to Guide Our Children and Youth

During this year of transition, please consider volunteering as a teacher in our Religious Education program. If you can participate or have questions, please contact Sam Dickerson (cvuufsam@gmail.com) or any member of the R.E. Committee (Leeanne Christianson, Liza Diniakos, or Tom Wolf). Thank you!

UU Borders, an experiential learning Justice Journey

Registration is open for the two remaining 2015 UU Borders trips: October 2-5 and December 4-7. This experiential learning journey to the U.S./Mexico border will allow you to immerse yourself with the individuals most impacted by U.S. border policies with the help and guidance of the activists who assist the deportees. Most memorable for many UUs is the bi-national worship service at the border wall. This is an incredible opportunity to educate ourselves about the systems that have led to our broken immigration policies while we embrace the beauty of the borderlands and our diverse cultures.

Dennis Brown of the Chalice congregation will lead the October trip and Jan Meslin of the Tapestry Congregation will lead the December trip. Both Jan and Dennis are on the UUMCA Immigrant Justice Action Team. Please visit UUMCA's website (uuborders.org) for more details and registration.

FUN(draising)- A New Way to Look at our Annual Auction

Changes abound, the first of which is renaming the Annual Auction committee to the FUN(draising) Team! This year, auction activities will occur all through the year. We will have our Live Auction Gala in February, rather than in the fall. Plus, we will have ongoing silent auction-type events throughout the year! Dinners, Services, Parties and all of the wonderful events that we have had in the past will occur each month.

The benefit of this method is that you can offer your items/events/services at any time you want. Every month you can check the announcements and see what it is that you might like to participate in and/or donate. New people will have multiple opportunities for fellowship and fun. And you don't have to figure out your whole year at one time!

So what would you like to offer? What would you like to attend? We welcome all manner of events and services and look forward to hearing from you!

Contact Dana Ryon or Erik Halseth about scheduling your event. Wouldn't October be a great time to host a party or dinner?
