Submission Form for KCLU – must include all details below...

Title of Event

Location, including a complete address of event (simply writing " Wood Park " or "Westmont College Campus" will not suffice)

Sponsor or presenting organization (if it is to benefit a charity, please include that info as well)

Phone number for additional information

Name of person for additional information

Date/s of Event, with times of the event Web site (if applicable)

Organization logo or an image of the event/person/band etc. (A web address where the logo resides is acceptable, images/photos that require photo credits will not be published)

Ticket prices, reservation information, and/or specifics about your event (i.e.: Adults only, students are free, etc)

And, A DESCRIPTION OF YOUR EVENT MUST BE WRITTEN. (ie: The Ventura College Music Foundation presents the hit play Hairspray. A massive production featuring students from Ventura College, the community is invited to attend this free event. Refreshments will be provided. This is an adult only event.)

Please be advised that if your submission fails to include the above items, it will not be posted on the web site. We receive hundreds of submissions each month and it is imperative that all the necessary information is included. It is the goal of KCLU to promote events in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties for listeners, while providing them with correct and complete information regarding your event.

KCLU strays from broadcasting events related to religious or political messages, gatherings, protests or events that would otherwise "position" attendees. Events must be free from political and/or religious based messages or topics. Events may be held at a church or synagogue or place of worship, but must be free from a political or religious messages and/or positions in its content.

When you have this information, please feel free to send it directly to me (Jocelyene Rorhbach), and it will be added to the Datebook.
